

THE WALNUT TREE WINES

We list what we taste and like, not in any way trying to be comprehensive. We do favour smaller and artisan winemakers. Note, too our affinity with one of the finest of Champagne estates, Billecart-Salmon, our house champagne by-the-glass.

The wines are grouped:

ESSENTIAL. Varietal based, available by-the-glass, and in 35cl. (about a half-bottle) carafes.

CORE. Shining stars that offer value too.

CLASSIC. Mostly top-end, but not exclusively.

Wine service in restaurants can be a bit elaborate. Not here. We offer you a taste to check the condition, pour a small glass for each diner and then we leave you to it,

Santé,

Shaun.

| 11 | La Segreta Bianco 2016/7. (Planeta)
Italy, Sicily. Fresh, smooth finish. Chardonnay and local grenacico. | 26 |
| 12 | Lugana San Benedetto 2017. (Zenato)
N.E. Italy, Lake Garda. Softly dry, with a luscious, fruity style that grabs you. Trebbiano grape, not usually making classy drinking. | 27 |
| 13 | Le Versant Viognier 2016. (Foncalière)
France, Languedoc. Sweet peachy nose; bold, dry, fruity flavours. | 28 |
| 14 | L'Aurora Bianco 2016. (Marzucco)
Italy, another Sicilian. Dry, sprightly vermentino. Light, easy drinking. | 28 |
| 15 | Mega Spilo Moscato 2016.
Think Alsace dry muscat? The fragrance shouts sweet grapes, but it's a fully dry, fresh-tasting wine. Well, this is like that, but... it's from Achaia in Western Greece. Gob-smacked us too! | 28 |
| 16 | Tinpot Hut Pinot Gris 2016/7.
New Zealand. A worthy alternative to regular Italian pinot grigio. Quite dry, super-smooth, fruity too. Have to like it! | 28 |
| 17 | Petit Paradis 2016.
France, Languedoc, St. Chinian. A blend of marsanne, grenache and vermentino. 99% of St. Chinian is red, so this is an oddball. Fully dry, nicely complex, with a waxy quality. Good white with meats. | 28 |
| 18 | Picpoul de Pinet 2017. (Gaujal)
Southern France, Languedoc. Dry, medium-full, fresh citrus edge. Picpoul is the grape. | 30 |

Italy, Veneto. Dry and fresh, and full of flavour. From one of Italy's top producers, who is bringing respect back to Soave. | 16 |
| 22 | Albariño. Lagar de Cervera 2017.
North-West Spain, Rias Baixas. The smartest white of Spain. Light, fragrant; brilliant with fish and shellfish. | 32 |
| 23 | Greywacke Sauvignon Blanc 2017. | 32 |
| 24 | Greywacke Wild Sauvignon Blanc 2015.
New Zealand, Marlborough. Very dry, intense, especially the 'wild' version! Made by Kevin Judd, the inspired maker of Cloudy Bay in its stupendous early years. Say no more. | 42 |

 France, Burgundy. Basic appellation, but a very good grower, demonstrating proper taste of the grape. No oak, quite full.
- 26 Pinot Blanc d'Alsace (Boesch) 2016. 32
 N. E. France. Clean full and dry. Good grower in this reliable area.
- 27 Fania 2016. (Gulino) 34
 Italy, Sicily. Very dry, fresh, nicely full. Local Fiano and Insolia grapes.
- 28 Graziano Chenin Blanc 2011. 34
 USA, California, Mendocino. Chenin blanc can be a long-lived grape. This is rounded and dry, with a nice bit of body too.
- 29 Saint Véran 2016. (Domaine Perraud) 34
 France, Burgundy. Pouilly-Fuissé wannabee. Jean-Christophe Perraud makes punchy chardonnay.
- 30 Bogle Chenin Blanc 2015. 34
 USA, Central California. An under-rated grape handled well here. Dry and crisp, but the body too to take on spicy flavours.
- 31 Gewürztraminer d'Alsace (Boesch) 2016. 34
 N. E. France. Aromatic, grapey, but still dry. Excellent example of this difficult varietal.
- 32 Plexus White 2016. (Duval) 36
 Australia, Barossa Valley. We've long listed Maestro Duval's take on Rhône reds, and now here's the white. Marsanne, roussanne and viognier together like an Hermitage blanc. Full, dry, aromatic. A joy!
- 33 Grüner Veltliner Klassik 2015. (Mehofer) 36
 Austria. Dry, lots of fruit, but full and rich too. Serious quality.
- 34 Collioure Blanc 2015. 36
 France, Pyrénées. Crazy-steep vineyard right by the Spanish border. Co-operative effort of local growers - purely to maintain the terraces. Quite full, dry and fresh-tasting. Weird local grapes. Refreshing change from the regular stuff.
- 35 Pegasus Bay Bel Canto Riesling 2014. 38
 New Zealand, Waipara. Hint of spritz. Bold, dry, crisp with a citrus edge. Quite an oddball, but we found it attractive.
- 36 Cullens Sauvignon Blanc/Semillon 2016. 38
 Western Australia, Margaret River. Posh Oz grower. Crisp and fresh with a lovely length of flavour (no oak). A Shaun fave.
- 37 Cambria Tepusquet Vineyard Viognier 2014/6. 42
 USA, California. A fine viognier with that typical apricot and tropical fruit character. Aromatic, dry and bright.

| | N. Spain. Benchmark, modern rioja: more fruit, less oak. Plus very old vines make a difference. | |

- 59 Saumur-Champigny
 Domaine le Petit Vincent 2016. 32
 France, Loire. Cabernet franc, an under-rated grape. Shows fruitiness but there's structure too.
- 60 Meloso Joven Tempranillo 2016. 32
 N. Spain, Ribera del Duero. Junior 'young' red, no oak, bright fruit but structure too. Quality and value from a very posh wine area.
- 61 Yealands Pinot Noir 2017. 34
 New Zealand, Marlborough. Overtly fruity in a very non-Burgundian way.
- 62 Corbieres Clos de l'Anhel 2016 (Guiraudon) 34
 Southern France. A lovely soft fruity style, with just a nice bit of body. Well-made wine, and good value too.
- 63 Chiroubles 2013/5. (Daniel Bouland) 34
 France, Beaujolais. The smoothest and least well-known of the Beaujolais crus.
- 64 Buitenverwachting Christine 2012. 36
 S. Africa. An old (still unpronounceable) favourite. Smooth claret style, gives decent claret a serious challenge. Good value.
- 65 St. John's Road Shiraz 2016. 36
 Australia, Barossa Valley. Strong, dark, some proper use of oak.
- 66 Allan Scott Pinot Noir 'The Hounds' 2016. 36
 New Zealand, Marlborough. Touch of oak, but the fruit shines through. Quite full. Very decent pinot noir.
- 67 Rasteau 2015. (Domaine les Evigneaux) 38
 France, S. Rhône. Lesser-known area. Typically meaty in a Châteauneuf way (similar grapes). Good value for real depth of flavour.
- 68 Fontodi Chianti Classico 2014/5. 38
 Half: 20
 Italy, Tuscany. Perfectionist grower. Rich and quite powerful style, with a berry aroma like good shiraz. Not expensive for the quality.
- 69 Palazzo della Torre 2014. (Allegrini) 38
 70 La Grola 2014. (Allegrini) 40
 Italy, Verona. Allegrini is stonking good, Palazzo is smooth in a posh merlot way. Grola is more substantial.

- 71 Irancy 2012/4. (Thierry Richoux) 40
 France, Chablis. Yes, they do make a bit of red in Chablis, and this is it. Light fruity pinot noir; a rounded Burgundy style.
- 72 Fleurie La Madone 2014. (Chanudet) 40
 France, Beaujolais. Plenty of fruit as you'd expect but substance too.
- 73 Ata Rangi Pinot Noir 'Crimson' 2016. 40
 Half: 22
 New Zealand, Martinborough. Fancy, world-class estate with pinot directly challenging Burgundy's best. Smooth, soft fruit. Fine value as this is NOT the top wine, just number two. Didn't worry us, super!
- 74 Planet Oregon Pinot Noir 2015. 40
 USA. Oregon is well-known for the quality of its pinot noir, the trickiest of grapes. This shows it well, with smooth, unctuous flavours. Love it.
- 75 Quinta do Crasto Reserva Old Vines 2015. 42
 Portugal, Douro valley. One of Portugal's finest estates. Substantial, some oak; balanced.
- 76 Plexus 2014/5. (Duval) 44
 Australia, Barossa Valley. Smooth, super-ripe. Shiraz, grenache, mourvèdre in a Châteauneuf way. Duval used to make Grange!
- 77 Greywacke Pinot Noir 2014. 50
 New Zealand, Marlborough. Another Kevin Judd star bottling (see core whites). 'Exuberant' is not a word we use lightly, but this is that sort of wine.

France, Rhône. Smooth strength. Junior stuff but top-notch producer (see our posh Châteauneuf opposite).
- 81 Bourgogne Rouge 2015. (Michel Juillot) 30
France, Burgundy. Rounded pinot noir. It's hard work finding decent burgundy (so many duds). But got a respectable example here.
- 82 Le Baron de Château Rouillac 2008. 34
France, Bordeaux. Pessac-Léognan, best bit of Graves. The second wine of an obscure estate. Cabernet + merlot. Attractive mature style, showing balance and fruit.
- 83 Hautes Côtes de Beaune-Villages 2015.
(Delagrange) 38
France, Burgundy. This Volnay grower has some lesser vineyards too. We were ready to dismiss this junior wine, but it really surprised us with its quality. Not fancy, but balance and fruit shine through.
- 84 Château Haut Goujon 2014. 38
France, Bordeaux, Montagne St. Emilion. Traditional merlot, nicely full and dry. Often lesser Bordeaux estates disappoint but not this.

CLASSIC RED - POMEROL

£

This appellation, bordering St. Emilion, is tiny in Bordeaux terms. But the small estates make the best merlot wines in the world. The style is famously rich, supple, sumptuous, long-lived and sought after. Here from 2005 which was a great vintage.

- 104 Morey St.-Denis Clos des Ormes
2013. (Georges Lignier) 78
 2008 Half: 40
 France, Burgundy. Old vine premier cru pinot noir. Aromatic, substantial, rounded. Morey is the less-famous neighbour of Gevrey-Chambertin and Chambolle-Musigny. But equally fine.

France, Bordeaux. Sauternes neighbour. Similarly medium-sweet but lighter and fresher than Sauternes-proper. Good botrytis.
Cyprés de Climens 2009.	Half:	42
France, Bordeaux. Sauternes. Climens is one of the great wine estates. This is the second wine, but in a magnificent vintage. Toasty, rich, layered, majestic.
Bonnezeaux Domaine du Petit Val 1995.		68
France, Loire. Mature chenin blanc, still lively; from a class area. Baked apple sort-of flavours. Medium-sweet.
Vin de Paille Hermitage 1996. (Chapoutier)	Half:	140
France, Rhône. Marsanne grapes are dried on straw mats for a couple of months, before fermentation. The resultant wine is deep, sweet and viscous, but there's balancing acidity too. Think spicy apricot. Extremely rare style, only revived by Chapoutier since 1990.
